July 9, 2017 -- Acts 2:42-47; 11:19-24

Ask The Pastor Anything:

Is the Church today what God Intended?

The early church was devoted to four areas:

- To the Apostle's t _____, to f _____, to c _____ and to p _____.
- Every _____ they continued to _____ together.
- They reached out to _____ with the good news.

Why are there so many different Christian/ Protestant Churches?

- Quick Answer: Someone would _____ a new movement or church because they _____ the current church had gotten off _____.
- History shows the creation of new denominations occurs over _____ struggles, some theological _____ or simply wanting to _____ the church.

Why are there so many huge/mega churches?

- These churches that grow are _____ to help people to come to _____ and live a _____ life to God.

What God desires are _____-filled people to be _____ to the apostle's teachings, to get together regularly and often, to remember Jesus through communion and to be people of prayer.
