Luke 24:1-12

Believing the Unbelievable

What might _____ be like today without the _____?
not everyone saw the _____ in the same way.

Can man _____ God from rolling back the stone?
Absolutely _____!

Did you know in the Jewish law it took only ____ witnesses to either convict someone of either breaking the law or not breaking the law?

What really strikes me about the women's response is they _____ Jesus when he _____ himself to them.

The disciples have a hard time believing a _____ because it seems _____ to them!

The resurrection was so _____ the disciples were willing to _____ because of it.

Just because someone says the resurrection wasn't _____,
doesn't make it ____.

Sometimes we think we have to prove something that is proven in history, when instead, people need to prove it really didn't happen.

Now I think the cornerstone of the resurrection is:

- Jesus not only defeated _____ (i.e., eternal _____)
- we can live a life of joy, hope and freedom _____!

For those who are willing to place their lives in his hands,
You will experience a life _____!

Weekly Devotions

God speaks to us today by the Holy Spirit. Jesus said about the Holy Spirit,

“But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.”

This week, begin your quiet time with God by having your Bible and if you would like to journal, some paper/notebook in which to write some observations from God on. Use the following instructions for your time with God:

1. Ask God to first quiet your heart and mind so that you are available to God.
2. Ask God to speak to your heart as you read the scripture for the day.
 - a. Determine the most meaningful part of the scripture you read today. Write down the verse if your journaling.
 - b. What do you feel God was impressing upon you? In one or two sentences, write down the impression you received as you read this particular part of the scripture.
 - c. What do you feel God wants you to learn or do as a result of what impressed you. Write it down if you are journaling.
