

Sermon Notes

June 11, 2017 -- 2 Kings 21:19-11; 22:1-2,8-11; 23:1-3

The Impact of a Life Changed

Reverend James Pascoe had a spiritual _____ for generations to come.

Everyone _____ a heritage for their _____,
for better or for worse.

If you had an example or not, it's never too _____
to _____ God.

What is it that _____ anyone to begin to _____ God in their life?

People make _____ in their lives only after they are _____ God's way is the right way.

As God reveals more, Josiah _____ what God is doing and makes the appropriate _____ in his life.

Am I willing to _____ God, not only for me, but for those who _____ me?

[Sermon Note Answers: impact, leaves, children, late, seek, causes, seek, changes, convinced, embraces, changes, seek, follow]

Weekly Devotions

This week's devotions are simple:

1. Put the information on the Trinity Worksheet into your Bible, some each day of the week.
2. Each day take one section and underline the scripture in your Bible and link the verses together. Then meditate on the section of scripture you have marked and linked together during the course of the day.
 - a. See how each scripture speaks to the eternal, distinct and divine nature of God.
 - b. Be reminded that only God is allowed our worship and our glory, no idol deserves this.

Sunday (today): Put in the front of your Bible the working definition of God and put the starting scripture at the end of it. Also take several of the "One True God" scriptures and put them in your Bible.

Monday: Put in the remaining "One True God" scriptures.

Tuesday: Put in the "Are 3 eternal, distinct, divine persons" scriptures.

Wednesday: Put in the "The Father" scriptures.

Thursday: Put in the "The Son" scriptures.

Friday: Put in some of "The Holy Spirit" scriptures.

Saturday: Put in the remaining "The Holy Spirit" scriptures.