Pity to Praise Party

Our 3rd Annual Pity to Praise Party is designed to follow many of the Psalms, which often begin with sad feelings and end with joyful praise. Mostly by being together (this year, we moved from a restaurant to Armstrong Hall to keep safer distances), our post summer year end (or other caused) blues, at least for the moment, were lifted to joy through conversation and fun activities. Twelve gathered and enjoyed the positive results with (among other things) chocolate, crafts, and a beautiful prayer bracelet that carries us through Psalm 23 by its colored beads.

Odds and Ends and Other Things

Christmas Mission: This year our Christmas project will still be through Samaritan's Purse. But instead of filling up shoeboxes, we will be taking monetary donations (please designate Samaritan Purse on your check or envelope). With the money collected we will then purchase items like, goats, baby chicks, bees, musical stuffed lambs, soccer balls and books. Thank you in advance for continuing God's work by helping those in need.

Upper Room Booklets: The November and December issues are now available for pick up on table at the entrance of the Sanctuary. Take advantage of this free daily devotional to give your day a good start or end or midday boost.

Due to the covid pandemic things will be different this year

- 1 No Turkey Dinner
- 2 No Community Thanksgiving Service

And probably - (stay tuned in our weekly E-Notes for confirmation)

- 3 No Advent Tea
- 4 No Cookie Walk
- 5 No Whole Church Breakfast

Make the most of it and enjoy a simpler, back to the basics Christmas this year.
