Recent Worship in Pictures

June 4 Top L-R Mary Jo Bell leads the congregational music (with Donna Allmond and Kathy Nowak on the instruments (not pictured), Charles Kirkpatrick announces the results of the Memorial Day Parade Hot Dog Sale ($1,000) and that it will be donated to our Mid-year catch-up campaign which runs through the month of June, he also announced that offers on the rental house property would be considered that afternoon. Later in the service he gave a God moment about his sister who was inspired by receiving a quilt from our quilt ministry. Sherrie Rice was the reader of the day, and Terri Priess led the worship and gave the message while Pastor Chuck was at the annual meeting of Michigan United Methodist Conference.

June 11 Row 2 L-R Terri Priess led the readings. Pastor Chuck talks about the importance of uniting together even when we are at different places on our spiritual journey, and gives the closing blessing that God's friendship will go with us.

Jun 18 (cont.) Top L-LC Kathy Novak plays pre and post service and offering music, as she does most weeks, with Donna Allmond on non-praise band Sundays. Jerry Weaver led the readings.

Jun 25 Top RC-R Vivian Lemon led the readings. Pastor says Peter does not encourage us to sit and wait “for a better day” but to create it. 2nd-4th rows The Seasonal Singers sing “I’ve Found a Friend, O Such a

New Worship Series - Heavenly Citizenship (on 1 Peter). Peter, Paul, and others remind Christians who are on the verge of an official Roman persecution, that their true home is in the Roman Empire, but in heaven, and we Christians are emissaries, ambassadors, sojourners who temporarily reside here, but live the values of their heavenly home. Peter tells us what that life might look like.
